Inox-Mecc Moçambique, Lda

is hereby accredited as an
ETHICALLY AWARE SUPPLIER

Expiry date: 24 Months from date of completion

Chief Executive Officer – The Ethics Institute

Notes:

- This does not accredit a company as being ethical but gives reasonable assurance that a senior representative of the company has undergone business ethics awareness training and should be reasonably aware of ethical issues in business.
- This accreditation remains valid for two years after which a refresher course will need to be completed.
- The accreditation is only given to a company whose trained representative is part of the top management team.
- Should the certified individual cease to be a part of the top management team, this accreditation will become null and void.
